THE GORSUCH AND LOVELACE FAMILIES

(Concluded)

By J. H. P., Baltimore, Md.

CHILDREN OF THE REV. JOHN[3] GORSUCH (DANIEL[2], WILLIAM[1]) AND HIS WIFE ANNE LOVELACE (Concluded); 9. CHARLRS[4] GORSUCH (Concluded; 10. LOVELACE[4] GORSUCH; 11. FRANCRS[4] GORSUCH.

9. CHARLES[4] GORSUCH OF BALTIMORE COUNTY (Concluded).

32. William[7] Gorsuch (Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). He was born November 27th, 1769 (Family Bible). Under the will of his father he received the dwelling plantation Cole's Search Amended on Western Run for five years following his father's death. He moved from this neighborhood to Baltimore City in 1799. He died January 16th, 1846. From his Family Bible in the Maryland Historical Society the date of his birth and death, the date of the birth and death of his first wife, Aberilla Vaughan, the date of the death of his second wife Ann McIntyre, and the dates given below of the birth of his children have been learned. William[7] Gorsuch's will, dated February 16th, 1841, and proved May 13th, 1846, divides his property in Baltimore City between his daughters, Sarah Ann Gorsuch and Margaret Emich. His obituary in the Baltimore American, January 17th, 1846, gives his residence as Columbia Avenue and Green Street. He is buried in Mt. Olivet Cemetery. William[7] Gorsuch married first Averilla Vaughan by license, June 30th, 1793. She was born May 11th, 1777, and died May 27th, 1800. He married secondly June 30th, 1803, Ann McIntyre, by license of same date. She died March 24th, 1832. The will of his brother Nicholas[7] Gorsuch, 1835, names Margaret, the daughter of his brother William Gorsuch.

Issue of William[7] Gorsuch (Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]), and his 1st wife, Averilla Vaughan:

i Thomas[8] Gorsuch (William[7], Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born March 9th, 1794. Not traced.

ii Harriet[8] Gorsuch (William[7], Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]-). Born November 12th, 1795. Died July 5th, 1835 (Bible). Married Howell Downing, by license, December 5th, 1815. Issue: Sarah[9], died in infancy; Sarah[9], mar. Edwin A. Weller; William Joseph[9] Howell mar. Elizabeth Defferman; Abarilla[9], mar. John Joseph[9]; Seelor Robinson; Harriet[9] died unmar.; Martha Anna[9]

mar. George Norbury Mackenzie; Henry Clay[9] mar. Mary Jones; Ardelia Tufts[9] mar. Edwin A. Weller; Emma Louisa[9] mar. Robert Pendleton Bayley.

iii William[8] Gorsuch (William[7], Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born June 4th, 1797. Not traced.

iv Elisha[8] Gorsuch (William[7], Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born February 16th, 1799. Not traced with certainty. This may have been the Elisha Gorsuch who moved from near Baltimore to Hampstead, Carroll Co., dying there about 1875, aged about 75 years, leaving several children.

Issue of William[7] Gorsuch (Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]) and his 2nd wife Ann McIntyre:

v Lowrey F.[8] Gorsuch (William[7], Charles[6], Charles[4]). Born November 18th, 1804. Married October 18th, 1832, Cordelia Shutt. (Balto. American, October 22nd, 1832). He is said to have married again and to have moved to Cincinnati, Ohio. He left issue.

vi Sarah Ann[8] Gorsuch (William[7], Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born April 8th, 1806. Died October 5th, 1873. (Mt. Olivet Tombstone.) Married October 13th, 1846, William V. Heard of Hagerstown, Md. Spent her later years in Baltimore.

vii Nicholas[8] Gorsuch (William[7], Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born August 9th, 1808. Not certainly traced. It may have been this Nicholas Gorsuch who married Elizabeth Craggs, Dec. 3rd, 1829. (Balto. 1st Methodist Church). It is thought that he married and had issue, and that he left Baltimore. Nicholas M. Gorsuch, living in Baltimore in 1845, is probably identical.

vii Margaret L.[8] Gorsuch (W,lliam[7], Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]) Born May 28th, 1811. Died August 9th, 1881. Married October 4th, 1836, John Valentine Emich, of Baltimore, as his second wife. Had five children who reached maturity.

ix Robert[8] Gorsuch (William[7], Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born May 8th, 1816. Died October 19th, 1888, in Libertytown, Frederick County; married Sophronia Angell, daughter of Jacob Angell, by license, November 21st, 1840. Issue, six children, viz: Lieut. Robert L. McIntyre[9] Gorsuch, born May 13th, 1843, died May 16th, 1864 (Mt. Olivet Tombstone); Charles[9], Fanny[9], William[9], James Stone[9], and Thomas Flint[9].

x James[8] Gorsuch (William[7], Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born June 14th, 1818. Twin of next. Died in infancy.

xi Elizabeth[8] Gorsuch (William[7], Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born June 14th, 1818. Twin of preceding. Died in infancy.

xii Maria[8] Gorsuch (William[7], Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born September 21st, 1820. Died August 6th, 1821.

xiii Levinia[8] Gorsuch (William[7], Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born February 17th, 1823. Died June 27th, 1823.

33 Nicholas[7] Gorsuch (Charles[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). He was born in 1774. He inherited under the will of his father the dwelling plantation Cole's Search Amended. He married Agnes Glenn, who died September 19th, 1848 aged 82, (Balto. Admn. Accts. 54; 330. Balto. American, Sept. 21st, 1848). She was born March 29th, 1767, and was the daughter of Robert Glenn of Harford County (Mackenzie's Colonial Families; iii, 183). The marriage license, September 21st, 1803, of Nicholas Gorsuch and Nancy Glenn, probably indicates a previous marriage, rather than an error in the name. He apparently left no issue. Nicholas[7] Gorsuch lived in Baltimore and was for many years the proprietor of the inn known as "The Sign of the Wheat Sheaf" on Front near Gay street. His will, dated June 18th, 1835, and proved June 1st, 1839, leaves a large number of ground rents to his wife Agnes for life, which were then to be divided among the numerous children, whom he names, of his brothers David[8], Charles[8], Elisha[8], and William[8] Gorsuch and of his sister, Ruth[8] Gorsuch (Balto. Wills 17; 341). This will, and a deed, dated March 23rd, 1849, dividing his estate, have assisted in establishing numerous identifications, and in showing the marriages of several of his nephews and neices (Balto. Deeds A. W. B. No. 411; 445)

34 Charles[7] Gorsuch (Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born prior to 1757, as his younger brother, Nathan, was married in 1779. It is certain he was not the child of Benjamin[6] Gorsuch by Kerenhappuch Johnson, but by a former wife. By exclusion and indirect evidence it seems certain that it was this Charles[7] Gorsuch who married Delia Dimmit by license, December 22nd, 1784. She was the daughter of James Dimmit of Baltimore County and his wife Rachel Sinclair, the daughter of William Sinclair (Balto. Wills. 5; 273. Balto. Admn. Accts. 12; 161, 287). The St. James's register (Baltimore Co.) contains the birth records of four children of Charles and Delia Gorsuch between 1788 and 1798. From descendants living in Kentucky it is learned that Charles Gorsuch was a Revolutionary soldier and that he and his wife Delia moved to Mason County, Kentucky about 1800, where he died leaving eight children.

Issue of Charles[7] Gorsuch (Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]) and his wife Delia Dimmit:

i James[8] Gorsuch (Charles[8], Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born 1786, as family papers state that he died February 22nd, 1849, aged 63 years. Probably lived in Kentucky.

ii Rachael[8] Gorsuch (Charles[7], Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born September 2nd, 1788 (St. James's Register). Family records corroborate this and state that she died Sepyember 25th, 1859, aged 71. Married Cornelius Coryell, who died September 11, 1831. They lived in Mason County, Kentucky.

iii Elizabeth[8] Gorsuch (Cnarles[7], Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Family papers place her as the third child, but do not give the date of her birth, nor is this found in the St. James's Register. Her will, dated May 10th, 1859, and probated October 10th, 1859, in Mason County, Kentucky, is said to distribute various articles brought from Maryland. She did not marry.

iv William[8] Gorsuch (Charles[7], Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born March 8th, 1791 (St. James's Register). Family papers state that he married Margaretta ———, and had two sons, William and James.

v Kerenhappuch[8] Gorsuch (Charles[7], Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born January 2nd, 1795 (St. James's Register). Family papers refer to "Chyhabbick" or "Happy" Gorsuch, born January 2nd, 1795, and died October 27th, 1871, and state that she married ——— Jives, by whom she had no issue.

vi Charles[8] Gorsuch (Charles[7], Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born February 27th, 1798 (St. James's Register). Family papers state that he was born in 1797, and that his will dated June, 1855, was probated in Mason County, Kentucky October, 1868. It is stated that he married Cynthia Judd and had two daughters.

vii Sarah[8] Gorsuch (Charles[7], Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Not named in the register. Family papers state that she was born October 6th, 1799, and died October 17th, 1826, in Mason County, Kentucky.

viii Mary[8] Gorsuch (Charles[7], Benjamin[7], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Family pepers state that she was born September 10th, 1809, and that she died May 23rd, 1829. It is stated that she married Enoch Lloyd.

35 Nathan[7] Gorsuch (Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born as early as 1758. He married Belasha [Pelatiah] Pearce by license, September 17h, 1779. He owned several tracts of land located in the western part of Baltimore County, now Carroll County, which probably formed the farm afterwards owned by his son Maj. Benjamin[8] Gorsuch on the Mount Airy Road six miles southwest of Westminster. He died July 18th, 1813 (Bible). His estate was administered upon August 21st, 1813, by his son Benjamin Gorsuch, and an account filed September 5th, 1818, names his widow Pelatia and the twelve children given below, the last two of whom were still under the guardianship of their mother (Balto. Admn. Accts. 21, 362. Guard. Acct. 3, 146). His widow Pelatiah died February 10th, 1834 (Bible). The will of the widow Pollasha [Pelatiah] Gorsuch, dated May 23rd, 1833, was proved May 11th, 1834, (Balto. Wills 14, 465). The dates and certain of the other data as given below are from family memoranda obtained from descendants of the sons Benjamin[8], Nathan[8], and Stephen[8].

Issue of Nathan[7] Gorsuch (Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]) and his wife (order uncertain):

i Elizabeth[8] Gorsuch (Nathan[7], Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born July 4th, 1781. Married, prior to September 5th, 1818,

He married September 14th, 1815 (by license August 8th), Sarah Gorsuch[8], (Thomas[7], Lovelace[6], Thomas[5], Charles[4]). She was born June 27th, 1788, and died March 18th, 1860. Captain 15th Regiment of Rifles, War of 1812 (Marine's Invasion of Maryland; 1913). Title of "Major" said to have been for service in the Mexican War. Lived on farm on Mount Airy road, six miles southwest of Westminster, Carroll County, Md., where he and his wife are buried. November 11th, 1813, Charles Gorsuch, no wife joining, conveys his interest in certain lands inherited from his father, to his brother Benjamin Gorsuch. Died June 28th, 1818—see tombstone in the Benjamin[8] Gorsuch family graveyard on the Mt. Airy road. Is believed not to have married.

xi Jacob Gorsuch (Nathan[7], Benjamin[6], Charles[5], Charles[4]). Born April 28th, 1797. Said to have died in 1876. It is doubtless this Jacob Gorsuch who married Lucy Ann Nelson by a Frederick County license, April 3rd, 1826. He is said to have moved west, possibly to Ohio, and to have left descendants, one of whom, Anna M.[9], married Dennis[9] Gorsuch (Benjamin[8], Nathan[7], Charles, Charles[5]).

Wills 5; 106). Stephen[8] Gorsuch, his wife Jane, and son Nathan[9] are buried in Bethel Churchyard, near Sam's Creek, Carroll Co.

Note: Lack of space prevents the lines of Charles[4] Gorsuch of Baltimore County from being carried down further. While an attempt has been made to include all of his known descendants, bearing the name, down to and including his great-great grand-children, that this genealogy is incomplete and that errors have doubtless crept in, is fully recognized by the writer, who will welcome any corrections and additions which may be sent to him through the editor of the Virginia Magazine. These he will use in connection with a fuller genealogy of Charles[4] Gorsuch now in preparation, which will be deposited in the Maryland Historical Society.

10 Lovelace[4] Gorsuch of Dorchester County, Maryland, and His Descendants.

10. Lovelace[4] Gorsuch (John[3], Daniel[2], Willam[1])—Continued from Vol. XXIV, p. 91. Lovelace[4] Gorsuch was apparently next to the youngest son of the Rev. John[3] Gorsuch and his wife Anne Lovelace, and as his name does not appear in the Walkern, Herts, Register prior to 1642, the date of his father's eviction as rector, he was probably born in that year or shortly afterwards (ante 24; 87). He is next mentioned, however, in the will of his grandmother Alice Gorsuch, 1662 (ante 24; 85). He was one of the four Gorsuch children for whose transportation into Virginia Theo. Hoane was granted land on the Rappahannock, February 22nd, 1652, (ante 24; 87). Why he did not join his brothers Richard, Robert, and Charles, April 1st, 1657, in petitioning the Lancaster County, Virginia, court for the appointment of guardians is not clear (ante 24; 91). Lovelace[4] Gorsuch and his brother Charles[4] appear in Maryland at the same time, Lovelace[4] having had surveyed for himself, August 1st, 1661, a tract, Cold Comfort, 50 acres, on the Middle, or Spring Gardens Branch of the Patapsco near what is now Westport, and his brother Charles, August 3rd, 1661, taking up Whetstone Point, on what is now known as Locust Point, Baltimore City. The certificate of survey for Cold Comfort was issued to "Lovelace Gorsuch of this Province", and a patent granted thereto, February 20th, 1861-2 (Md. Patents 5; 18, 39). These same tracts lie in what is now Baltimore City, and were doubtless granted to the two brothers for their immigration into the Province.

Lovelace[4] Gorsuch moved from Baltimore to Talbot County three or four years later with his brother Richard[4] Gorsuch and his sister Elizabeth[4] Powell. Charles Gorsuch of Baltimore County, February 16th, 1669-70, conveys to Thomas Roper of South River, Arundel Co., Cold Comfort, granted February 20th, 1661-2, to Lovelace Gorsuch (Balto. Deeds I. R.: P. P.; 104). Lovelace Gorsuch of Talbot County, by letter of attorney, November 9th, 1670, authorized his "brother Charles Gorsuch to dispose of lands belonging to me in Baltimore County" (Balto. Deeds I. S.: I. K.; 38-39), doubtless to confirm the above title. Lovelace Gorsuch purchased from William Stevens, 1671, a tract in Talbot County on the Choptank, called Wilderness, 600 acres, adjoining Thomas Martin (Talbot Deeds 1; 154), which he sold May 12th, 1691, to William Sharp (idem. 5; 339). Lovely [Lovelace] Gorsuch and John Markes, March 14th, 1672, bought a tract, Southfield, on the Choptank, 205 acres, from John Ingraham (idem. 2; 44). Lovelace[4] Gorsuch had surveyed and patented several tracts of land upon the northeast branch of the Great Choptank River, Talbot County, later Queen Annes's County, viz: Poplar Ridge, 150 acres, October 10th, 1678; Poplar Ridge Addition, July 29th, 1681; Graveley How, 150 acres, August 8th, 1683; while Lovelace Gorsuch and William Dickinson patented jointly August 23rd, 1688, Dickinson's Plains, 860 acres, and Swan Brooke, 776 acres (Md. Patents; Liber 21; pp. 39, 370 372. Liber 22; pp. 411, 412). Lovelace[4] Gorsuch's will shows that he also owned Tuttle's Fields, 200 acres, and Cosmeade or Conchetoe, both on the Choptank. The tract Gorsuch's Triangle, 63 acres, surveyed, July 15th, 1703, for Lovelace Gorsuch, may refer either to the subject of this sketch or his son. It is thus seen that he was an extensive owner of land in what was then Talbot County.

The records of the Tred Avon Quaker Meeting show that "Lovelace Gorsuch of Talbot County" was married to "Rebeckah Preston of Dorchester County" at the house of Howell Powell, October 23rd, 1679. Among those signing the certificate were Charles Gorsuch, Elizabeth Powell, Elizabeth Powell, Jr., Ann Gorsuch and Joan Todd. Rebecca Preston was the daughter of Richard Preston of Calvert and Talbot County (Annapolis Judgments; Liber I; 608). Richard Preston was a justice and a member of the assembly, and was one of the leading Quakers of the Province. His will, dated September 16th, 1669, was proved January 8th, 1669-70. The Tred Avon Meeting records the birth of Lovelace, son of Lovelace and Rebecca Gorsuch, 12th month, 25th, 1685. The records of this same meeting show that Lovelace Gorsuch of Dorchester County, planter, and Hannah Walley, late of Pennsylvania, spinster, were married 6th month, 11th, 1696, at Tuckahoe Meeting, Talbot. The records also show that Lovelace[4] Gorsuch was a very active member of the Tred Avon Meeting. The West River Meeting, Anne Arundel County, records the appointment, 2nd month, 22nd, 1680, of Lovelace Gorsuch to "inspect into ye estate and charges of orphans", to succeed "his brother Charles Gorsuch removed from Choptank", and on the same date referring to a difference between William Stevens and Luvlis Gorsuch, directs that the meeting be removed from the former's house at the pleasure of the Quarterly Meeting on the eastern shore, unless he "do speedily answer truth and friends". From the foregoing it would appear that sometime prior to 1696 Lovelace Gorsuch had moved from Talbot to Dorchester County.

The will of Lovelace Gorsuch of Dorchester County, planter, dated 1st day of the 11th month, called January, 1703, was proved March 3rd, 1703-4. He left to his son John Gorsuch, Poplar Adicon (Addition) and adjacent lands on the Great Choptank, and in default of heirs to his son William Gorsuch. He left to his sons Lovelace and William Gorsuch a moiety each in Dickinson's Plaines, Swan Brooke and Cosmeade, and in default of heirs to his son John Gorsuch. He left a legacy of 50 shillings to the Quarterly Meeting, one-third of his personal estate to his wife Hannah, and the remainder to be divided among his three sons, John, Lovelace and William. His wife Hannah was made executrix. (Annap. Wills 11; 284). The will of Hannah Gorsuch of Dorchester County, relict of Lovelace Gorsuch, dated July 20th, was proved October 2nd, 1705. She divides her estate between her children John and William Gorsuch, to be delivered when they reach twenty-one years of age, with the proviso that should they die before this, her estate be divided among her first cousins in Pennsylvania. She makes a bequest to her nephew John Berry. She appoints Lovelace Gorsuch, Thomas Taylor of Feland Creek and Wm. Dickerson her executors, the last named to bring up her son John Gorsuch (Annap. Wills 12; 46). The Tred Avon Meeting records show that Lovelace Gorsuch[5] was the son of Lovelace[4] Gorsuch and his wife Rebecca Preston, while the will of Hannah Gorsuch, 1705, shows that William and John Gorsuch were the children of the second wife Hannah Walley.

Issue of Lovelace[4] Gorsuch (John[3], Daniel[2], William[1]) and his 1st wife Rebecca Preston:

1. Lovelace[5] Gorsuch (Lovelace[4], John[3], Daniel[2], William[1]). He was born 12th month (Feb.), 25th, 1685. He received under his father's will a moiety in Dickinson's Plains, Swan Brooke and Cosmeade, and certain unnamed tracts. Lovelace[5] Gorsuch died in 1709. His will, dated March 16th, 1708-9, was proved June 14th, 1709. He makes a bequest of a riding horse to his loving cozen Sarah Pinder. He leaves to his brother William Gorsuch, Tuttle's Fields, 200 acres, and Gorsuch's Triangle, 50 acres, as well as a moiety in Dickerson's Plains. He leaves Swan Brooke to his brother John Gorsuch. He divides his personal estate between his brothers John and William Gorsuch, and appoints his friends Thomas Taylor and William Dickerson of Talbot County executors. (Annap. Wills, Vol. 12, part 2; p. 135). This will shows that Lovelace[4] Gorsuch died unmarried.

Issue of Lovelace[4] Gorsuch (John[3], Daniel[2], William[1] and his 2nd wife Hannah Walley:

2. William[5] Gor_uch (Lovelace[4], John[3], Daniel[2], William[1]). Born 1697-1702. He inherited certain tracts under the will of his father and a reversionary interest in other tracts in the event of the death of his brothers Lovelace[5] and John[5] without issue. He eventually inherited all of the land of his father through the death of his brothers Lovelace[5] and John[5] without issue. William[5] Gorsuch removed from Maryland to Pennsylvania, where he was probably taken by the family of his mother Hannah Walley, after her death in 1705. There are on record in Queen Anne's County, Maryland, three deeds dated respectively July 29th, 1731, June 26th, 1734, June 6th, 1735, from William Gorsuch of Chester County, Pennsylvania, "only surviving heir of Lovelace Gorsuch, late of Dorchester County, Maryland," to Samuel Dickinson of Talbot County, conveying the tracts Poplar Ridge, Popler Ridge Addition, Tryangle, Tuttle Fields, Dickenson's Plains and Swan Brook, formerly in Talbot County, but now in Queen Anne's County (Queen Anne's Co. Deeds, R. T. No. A; 66, 305, 393). William Gorsuch probably married in Pennsylvania. The family name of his wife Rebecca is not known. He lived at the time of death in Upper Providence, Chester Co., Pa. William Gorsuch was taxed in 1726 in Lower Chichester Township, Chester Co., as a single freeman; in 1730 and in 1732 as of Chester Township; and from 1734 to 1740 in Lower Providence Township. The records of the Chester Monthly Meeting for the 5th month, 27th day, 1730, contain an "acknowledgement of" William Gorsuch for his "marriage by a priest". The records of this same meeting show the birth of eight children of William and Rebecca Gorsuch on the dates given below, viz: Hannah, John, Lydia, John, Thomas, Mary, Elizabeth and Ebenezer. Mr. Gilbert Cope, who has examined the Chester County records for the writer, states that neither the mother nor children appear to have been Quakers.

The will of William Gorsuch, sadler, of Upper Providence, Chester Co., Pa., dated 2nd month, 6th, 1744, was proved August 22nd, 1744. In it he provides for his wife Rebecca. He leaves to his eldest son John a silver tankard, and to his children, Thomas, Ebenezer, Lydia and Mary Gorsuch a silver spoon each. "As to That Part of my Estate That lyeth in Queen Ann's County, in Maryland, It is my will that my executors Impower John Dickeson (or in his absence or refusal Daniell Powell, Both being in Talbot County) To Dispose of It both Real and Personal & Geather the value therefor & Likewise Geather what is now due to me & out of the same Paying such Debts That I have contracted in that Government". His wife Rebecca and his friend Caleb Cowpland were appointed executors, the latter renouncing administration. The inventory shows among William Gorsuch's possessions a negro slave and a tract of land in Bucks County, Pa.

The administration account, June 17th, 1746, by Rebecca Gorsuch, executrix, shows an estate valued at £270: 5: 5. This shows an item for "funeral Charges for my husband & Son & one Negro Boy, £8", and "my Journey to Maryland, £3".

Elisha[9] Gorsuch (Charles[6], Charles[7], Charles[4]). He was born January 21st, 1757 (St. Paul's Register). He received one shilling under his father's will. He married Susanna Miller by license September 14th, 1803. His estatefwas administered upon December 22nd, 1820, and an account filed July 17th, 1822 shows distribution made to his widow Susanna and seven children, all of whom, except Ruth who had married Israel Pocock, were still under guardianship of their mother (Balto.Adm. Accts.1822). Additional date in regard to the marriages made by the other daughters and the fact that the widow had married Edw. Rockhold (license Dec. 3, 1823) is learned from a petition to divide the land of Elisha Gorsuch (Balto. Deeds W. G. No. 243; 547), and the will of his brother Nicholas Gorsuch, dated 1835. Elisha[9] Gorsuch lived in Baltimore County near the Pennsylvania line.

(Balto. Admns., 1824 Admn.Acct. 1828). She married prior to 1859, Lesourd, and was then living in Butler County, Ohio (see will of her uncle and step-father, Charles[8] Gorsuch).

i Hannah[6] Gorsuch (William[5], Lovelace[4]). Born 16, 2nd month, 1731. Apparently dead in 1744 as she is not named in her father's will.

Gorsgauge, single freeman, is taxed £1 in Middletown Township, Chester Co., Pa. There is a family of Gorsuch, now or recently resident in Philadelphia, which traces its origin from a John Gorsuch of Pennsylvania, said to be of Maryland descent, and his wife Sarah Reese of Pennsylvania. Issue of this marriage according to family records were: (1) Mary, married John Costolo, by whom she had, Baines, Sarah, Ann, Lydia, Eliza, Hannah; (2) Rebecca, married Baines Cox, by whom she had, Mary Cox, married William G. Lippincott; (3) Hannah, died unmarried; (4) Lydia, died unmarried; (5) Sarah, died unmarried; (6) John, who married and had a son William; (7) William, born Jan. 1, 1780, married Dorcas Gould, born 1790, by whom he had John, who married ——— Cummins; William, married Elizabeth McLaughlin; Sarah, married Park McLaughlin; Mercy married Elias Hess; Eliza Reese, married Newlin Thompson; Edwin, married Ann Todd; Hannah, unmarried. The occurence of the names Rebecca, Hannah, Lydia, Mary, William, and John in the Chester County, Penn., family, and in the Gorsuch family tracing its descent fron John Gorsuch and Sarah Reese of Pennsylvania, considered in connection with the correspondence in dates, makes it probable that the latter was John Gorsuch[6] (William[5], Lovelace[4]).

v Mary[6] Gorsuch (William[5], Lovelace[4]). Born 2nd, 6th month, 1739. Named in her father's will. In the administration account, June 17th, 1746, of her father's estate by her mother, is the item, afterwards crossed out: "To one year's maintaining my daughter Mary". Not traced.

vi Elizabeth[6] Gorsuch (William[5], Lovelace[4]). Born 17th, 3rd month, 1741. Died 28th, 6th month, 1742. The following entry in the records of the Chester Monthly Meeting, 30th, 6th month, 1742, states that William Gorsuch representing Providence Meeting "is absent by reason of one of his childern being deceased".

vii Ebenezer[6] Gorsuch (William[5], Lovelace[4]). Born 24th, 11th month, 1742-3. Named in his father's will, 1744. The administration account by his mother, 1746, contains the item, afterwards crossed out, "To maintaining my son Ebenezer one year". Not traced.

3. John[5] Gorsuch (Lovelace[4], John[3], Daniel[2], William[1]). Born 1698–1702. He was living when his mother made her will in 1705, under which she directs that he is to be brought up by William Dickerson [of Talbot County]. He had died some time prior to July 29th, 1731, when his brother William[5] Gorsuch executed a deed as the "only surviving heir of Lovelace Gorsuch, late of Dorchester County" to certain lands which had been left to John[5] Gorsuch under the will of his father (Queen Anne's Co. Deeds R. T. A. 66). This may have been the John Gorshich who witnessed a Talbot County marriage in 1725 (Cecil Monthly Meeting Records). He probably did not marry.

FRANCES[4] GORSUCH (JOHN[3], DANIEL[2], WILLIAM[1])

11. Frances[4] Gorsuch (John[3], Daniel[2], William[1]).— Continued from Vol. XXIV; p. 91. Frances[4] Gorsuch was apparently the youngest daughter of the Rev. John[3] Gorsuch and his wife Anne Lovelace, and was probably born shortly after 1642, the year of the eviction of her father as Rector of Walkern, Herts, as her baptism does not appear in the register. It should be noted that the writer in a previous connection carelessly referred to the youngest child of the Rev. John[3] Gorsuch as a son Francis (ante 24; 91). The will of Alice Gorsuch, 1662, the mother of the Rev. John[3] Gorsuch, makes a bequest to her granddaughter Frances Gorsuch, the daughter of her son John. This is the only mention of her which has been found (ante 24; 87). As her name does not appear among the Gorsuch headrights of Thos. Hoane for land in Virginia in 1652, nor in the petition of 1657 to the Lancaster, Virginia, court, requesting the appointment of guardians (ante 24;89, 91), it is uncertain whether she came to Virginia with the other seven younger brothers and sisters who are known to have come to this colony.

NOTE—This concludes the series of articles upon the Gorsuch family which have been appearing in the VIRGINIA MAGAZINE since 1916. There will follow a sketch of the Lovelace family of England and its connections.
